

KNOW YOUR RIGHTS: VOUCHER DISCRIMINATION IS ILLEGAL

KNOW THE LAW

Landlords cannot refuse to rent to you because you have a Section 8 voucher or rental assistance.

KNOW YOUR RIGHTS

LANDLORDS CANNOT:

- Post "No Section 8 or vouchers" on their rental advertisements.
- Ask if you have a voucher or rental assistance before giving you an application.
- Refuse to accept your application or rent to you.
- Require a larger security deposit or charge you more rent.
- Require your income be 3 times the total rent.

WHAT YOU CAN DO

- Take pictures of ads or signs and keep good notes about what happened.
- Call us for help.
- File an online complaint with the CA Department of Fair Employment & Housing at www.dfeh.ca.gov

For more information,
please contact:

LEGAL SERVICES
of
NORTHERN CALIFORNIA
www.lsn.net

Auburn: 530-823-7560
Chico: 530-345-9491
Eureka: 707-445-0866
Redding: 530-241-3565
Sacramento: 916-551-2150
Ukiah: 707-462-1471
Vallejo: 707-643-0054
Woodland: 530-662-1065